1. References:

a. Letter of invitation, U. S. Army Intelligence School, dated 25 August 1961, and acceptance thereto, Central Intelligence Agency, dated 20 September 1961.

b. Telephone conversation between [REDACTED] CIA, and Mrs. Hartman, U. S. Army Intelligence School, on 15 November 1961.

2. In accordance with telephone conversation, referenced above, the guest lecture, "CIA Organization and Operations," scheduled to be presented to the Military Intelligence Officer Course, Class 62-A-1, on 7 December 1961, has been rescheduled for 12 February 1962 from 1010-1145 hours.

3. The above-mentioned change was effected as a result of the inclusion of this guest lecture in the program of instruction for our Collection Staff Officer Course, Class 62-CO-1. This course, which has recently been approved, will commence on 5 February 1962, and it is believed that both the CIA and the U. S. Army Intelligence School would best be served by integrating classes 62-A-1 and 62-CO-1 to receive this instruction together, thereby eliminating two separate guest lectures on this subject.

4. It is anticipated that this lecture will be attended by approximately ninety students plus members of the Staff and Faculty.

5. The students have been cleared for access to TOP SECRET information.
